Recognizing a Local Community Leader

Hilliard, Ohio — On Tuesday, October 30, 2018, the local Boy Scouts of America is honoring Christopher L. Lardiere, Esq. at the Hilliard Good Scout Award Breakfast. We will be recognizing Christopher for his work in the community and being a deserving Hilliard resident. In attendance will be members of the Scouting community and prominent citizens of Hilliard and Columbus.

Professionally, Christopher is a co-founding member of the law firm Lardiere McNair located in Hilliard. He attended the University of Dayton for his undergraduate degree and graduated from Capital University Law School.

Christopher has been involved with the Hilliard community for over 30 years coaching various sports, earning the volunteer of the year in 2015, member and president of the Hilliard Optimist Club, and much more.

We invite members of the media to recognize Christopher L. Lardiere, Esq. at the breakfast on October 30th and to cover the announcement of his recognition. Please contact Cassie Ferguson, Community Relations & Marketing Director at cassie.ferguson@scouting.org or 440-590-5637.
